This Divine Comedy, originally called Commedia by the author and later nicknamed Divina by Boccaccio, is often considered the greatest work produced in the Italian language and is considered to be one of the most universally read works of literature.

Had Dante considered his life to be half over at age 35, the autobiographical references in the Divine Comedy, Inferno (part 1), of his life, would place the start of his journey on Good Friday, April 8, 1300 (Inferno, Canto I, line 39), with the Sun in Aries, and the subsequent events in the Inferno, Canto XXI, (lines 112 - 120 of 151), that occurred on the evening of Saturday, April 9, 1300, and ending on a Thursday. My first lesson was on Tryson Street in Deep River. And says it was in Tryson Street, top left floor of St. Joan's Church. Jan 1972.

Dante's Divine Comedy was composed in Florence, the Italian centre of culture dominated by Charles of Valois in 1302 CE. Valois as a Guelph was a supporter of the Papacy and was sent to Florence by Pope Boniface VIII to restore peace between the Guelphs and the Ghibellines. Dante, a Guelph, was exiled and condemned to death by Charles of Valois. Dante's Divine Comedy, which was completed in Ravenna, is a direct verbal attack against the corrupt Papacy of Pope Boniface VIII, who was the main protagonist in Purgatorio (Purgatory) and Paradiso (Paradise). Dante was given a fiefdom by Guido Novello da Polenta, the Ghibellines, and was buried in Ravenna. Dante's Divine Comedy was written in the Tuscan Vernacular Italian, which was a mixture of Latin, Greek, Provençal, French and Tuscan Vulgar Italian. Tuscan Vulgar Italian was the language of Florence. Dante's Divine Comedy was written in Tuscan Vulgar Italian so that it would be understood by the common people of Florence, not just the educated people of Florence. Another modern-day Renaissance man whom I witnessed from the age of 14 to the Right Honourable Pierre Elliott Trudeau, Prime Minister of Canada 1968 CE. Albeit he was 68 years old. If I had to pick one moment when he influenced me or impressed me the most, it definitely would have to be the way he handled the October Crisis of 1970.

Once lesson I learned from President Kennedy is that we ought to be aware of our own mortality. I know him as a great man. Today we know more about his imperfections and the reason he was imperfect. Back in 2001, I doubted continuously my ability to write the Phoenicia like Divine Comedy. I was in a state of depression. I was in a state of depression because I was in a state of PTSD. I was believed by many people, and some of these have been waiting for a long time for answers on this. Jack Ruby also implicated Johnson during his life. Also the instructor of LBJ is now, and was, in a state of depression.

Detailed Hawara Region Map (Click Image for full size)

The identification of King Wilsen as Amenemhet III is confirmed by the existence of two Labyrinths, one at Kaneron on Crete, and the other at Hawara in Egypt. Hawara is one of the Greek names for the Labyrinth on Crete, and the Labyrinth at Hawara is associated with the adjoining Pyramid of Amenemhet III, which is located at the Fayum. The Fayum is the Egyptian Crocodile Lake, which is the Lake of the Sun God, and Sesostris II is strongly connected with the Fayum, with the presumably very old Crocodile Temple being further confirmation of their identities as son and father. But it is remarkable! When one claims that a certain Pyramid belongs to a certain King, one is in fact claiming that the King was buried in the Pyramid. *Herodotus, Book 2 (Euterpe), Paragraph 148 (Amenemhet III) and Paragraph 149 (Sesostris II) - Herodotus, Book 2 (Euterpe), Paragraphs 147-150/Book 3, 1-12 (Cambyses

*The Phoenicians were the great maritime and commercial people of the ancient world, and prominent in colonization. The Romans transcribed the Greek "phoenix" to "poenus", thus calling Phoenicians the Punic people. Carthage, a Phoenician colony in North Africa, was the part of Africa that was given to the Hebrew people, Joseph, by Pharaoh in Genesis. Carthage means "new town", "merchant" or "traffick." "To land the keys," "bring down low," "humiliate" or "conquer." Genesis 10:18, "the families of the Canaanites (would be scattered, vanquished, or spread abroad)".*

The Edwardes were related to the Boleyns and the Bullen family. See Edwards in Phoenicia

The city of Tyre was colonized by a king with the name of "Erythras" (meaning "King Red") who came from an area on the Red Sea. Indeed, even the "Red Sea" itself which included all of what today is called the Persian Gulf, Arabian Sea, and Red Sea was called the "Red Sea." Thus, this "King Red" or Hebrew, "Edom" was supposed to be the first to set sail on the waters of the Red Sea for trading purposes. The first reference to him show him in the Persian Gulf part of the Red Sea. He was a king of the Persian Gulf area. Tyre was a Phoenician colony. Herodotus Mertyr, Original Syrian Lucian c. 2 said that the original Tyrians came to Tyre from the "Assyrian Sea" (which many actually feel was the Dead Sea). This, indeed, was the original Phoenicians who were the people who lived in the Dead Sea area. Phoenicians also settled on the Mediterranean coast, in the Red Sea of Arabia and on the Persian Gulf. These people were the first "Phoenicians" (the word also meaning "Red") and in Roman times the name became "Punic" people.

It is ironic that the defeating of the Egyptian statues which was partially deactivated the legacy of the Jews in Egypt also serves to identify those same statues today as the ones associated with Joseph and his sons Ephraim and Manasseh. It makes one wonder as Jehovah converted the colossus to good.

Adonis is said to be a figure of Wael Semitic origin, and he is nearly alike to the Egyptian Osiris (Wikipedia, Adonis). Adonis is said to have been born of a tree, and he is nearly alike to the Babylonian version given the same name of Tammuz.

Iphiar, Ion, Aetacle, Europs are different names identified as the guardians of Ione Ajchrodite, in whose arms Adonis died. Their corresponding surnames include Temnus; Delta, Tamnus; Dous, and Adonis, Hathor may be substituted for Ion. Of Europs, Hathor is the Mother of Horus, Osiris, and Set, and after a circle which signifies the planet Venus (please cross out Wikipedia, Aetacle; Hathor/Ione, Joseph).

The name of Asenath, the wife of Joseph (Ge 41:45,50), taken from Egyptian, is translated 'gift of Isis' (see Ox).

The name of Nut the wife of Geb is also like the name Neith. This would make Joseph Geb and Osiris then becomes Hercules.

Adonis is said to be a figure of Baal Semitic origin, and he is nearly alike to the Egyptian Osiris (Wikipedia, Adonis).

Dionysus the Greek god of wine has been associated with both Minoan Crete and with Italy. But the similarity of this name to Adonis and to Dionaea is compelling and warrants research. Quoting from Wikipedia, 'Dionysus', about this god Dionysus:

He is included as one of the twelve Olympians in some lists. Dionysus is typical of the god of the epiphany, "the god that comes". He was also known as Bacchus, the name adopted by the Romans and the force by indeers, bulldozer. In addition to winemaking, he is the patron deity of agriculture and the theater.

In Greek mythology, Dionysus is made out to be a son of Zeus and the mortal Semele; other versions of the myth contend that he is a son of Zeus and Persephone.

The similarity of 'Dionaea' and of 'Adonis' to 'Adonaea' may assist us in our identification of 'Dardanus' the founder of Troy, and in our identification of the Trojan Horse. The Trojan Horse is the sign of Amenemhet (Moses, Pentaur being other names for that Pharaoh). It was an image of the 19th century BCE, a mythological war of Joseph's day.
