The Psalm which believers Psalm 90 has sometimes been credited to Moses to write, and sometimes it is attributed to David.

Let your healing in the secret place of the most High
Let me abide in your shadow, the shadow of the Almighty, I will say to Jehovah, You are my refuge and my stronghold,
My God in whom I will trust.
Surely he will deliver you from the trap of the fowler,
And from the destructive pestilence.
With his pinions he will thoroughly do you, and under his wings you will take refuge.
His truth will be a shield and a protecting wall.
You will not be afraid of the terror by night,
Nor of the arrow that is flying by day,
Nor of the pestilence that deposits at midday,
Nor of the destruction that wastes at noon.
A thousand may be at your side,
And ten thousand at your right hand,
Only with your eyes will you look on,
And the reward of the wicked you will behold.
Because you said, Jehovah is my refuge,
The Most High you have made your habitation,
No calamity will befall you,
And no plague will come near your tent,
For he will give his angels charge concerning you,
To guard you in all your ways.
Upon their palms they will carry you,
Lest you may not bruise your foot against any stone.
Upon the lion and the cobra you will tread,
You will trample the young lion and the serpent.
Because he has delighted in me, I will deliver him,
I will place him on high,
Because he has known my name.
He will call upon me, and I will answer him,
I will be with him in distress,
I will deliver him and glorify him,
With long days I will satisfy him,
And I will show him my salvation.
Psalm 90, The Holy Bible, Revised Standard Version

The Law of Moses includes such precious principles for life:

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.
You shall not make false accusations against the people of your country.

The Greek Theory Testament contains many references to Moses' writings and to Moses himself, as any discussion of Moses in Holy Scriptures bears witness to the importance of Moses in the Jewish tradition. Moses is the most important figure in the Hebrew Scriptures (Old Testament). Moses is mentioned 1,196 times in 1,111 of 39 books (pages ranging in length from 1 to 150 pages) in the Holy Bible.

An interesting result of the doing of left to about 2000 B.C.E. is that it inductively dates Joseph to about the same time as that, with 3rd-starting Dinah he half-brother Joseph, Jacob's 11th son, Israel's 12th son, Israel's 12th son, Israel's 12

Teach you swivel and swirl, Now there are a few of the things I see, out in the wild wild world." I found a preview on the internet for the above– blank God.
